Fullerton College

WHAT IS THE CCPG?

The California College Promise Grant (CCPG) is a state-funded program available exclusively to California residents attending California Colleges, including CA Dream Act Students. Residency status is determined by the Fullerton College Admissions & Records Office. The CCPG covers the $46 per unit enrollment fees and part of the parking permit fee. After registering for classes, eligible

HOW DO I APPLY?

OPTION 1 Financial Aid Application FAFSA or CADAA (Recommended for ALL students)	OPTION 2 myGateway CCPG APPLICATION (Continuing students)	OPTION 3 CCC Start CCPG APPLICATION (New students)
All students can complete a FAFSA or CADAA to be considered for financial aid, including the CCPG. • Free Application for Federal Student Aid - studentaid.gov OR • California Dream Act Application (CADAA) - dream.csac.ca.gov IMPORTANT: Students must submit only one financial aid application, as submitting both will delay processing.	Continuing students can complete the CCPG application through myGateway. • Log in to your myGateway account. • Go to Student Tools and select Financial Aid. • Under General Links, select Fullerton College CCPG Application. • Sign in to your CCC Start account. (Do not create a new account.) • Select Start New Application and follow the on-screen instructions. • Students may be required to submit documentation to verify CCPG eligibility. IMPORTANT: The information provided is confidential and used solely by Fullerton College and the NOCCCD/State Chancellor's Office to determine CCPG eligibility.	New students can complete the CCPG application through CCC Start. • Visit the Fullerton College CCPG application link on the CCC Start: https://bog.openccapply.net/gateway/bog?cccMisCode=862 • Sign in to your CCC Start account. • Under My Promise Grant Applications, select Start New Application and follow the on-screen instructions. • Students may be required to submit documentation to verify CCPG eligibility. IMPORTANT: The information provided is confidential and used solely by Fullerton College and the NOCCCD/State Chancellor's Office to determine CCPG eligibility.

TIPS & REMINDERS

- Students must reapply for the CCPG each academic year. While students are encouraged to apply before the Fall term begins, applications may be submitted at any time during the academic year. Please note the CCPG cannot be applied to enrollment fees after June 30 of each academic year.
- To receive the waiver at both Fullerton College and Cypress College, students must submit a separate application at each institution.
- Students who have already paid for classes but later qualify for CCPG will receive a refund by check mailed to the address on myGateway. Refunds may take several weeks to process and are issued by the Fullerton College Bursar's Office. For refund information, visit fcbursar.fullcoll.edu.
- This information applies only to the California College Promise Grant (CCPG), which waives enrollment fees. It does not apply to the Promise Program. For information about the Promise Program or to apply, visit promise.fullcoll.edu.
